

AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE

The American Jewish Committee (AJC) has worked since 1906 to safeguard & strengthen Jews and Jewish life worldwide by promoting democratic & pluralistic societies that respect the dignity of all peoples.

AJC is an international think tank and advocacy organization that attempts to identify trends and problems early - and take action.

The American Jewish Committee's Mission is:

- Safeguard the welfare and security of Jews in the United States, in Israel, and throughout the world.
- Strengthen the principle of pluralism around the world as the best defense against anti-semitism and other forms of bigotry.
- Enhance the quality of American Jewish life by helping ensure Jewish continuity and deepen ties between American & Israeli Jews.

In addition to AJC's U.S. headquarters AJC has 29 chapters and 3 independent affiliates in the U.S., 8 overseas offices and 28 global partnerships.
