

The Emanuel Foundation for Hungarian Culture was formed as an international tribute committee for Hungarian Holocaust victims. Honorary Chairmen include Tony Curtis, Edgar Bronfman, Professor Edward Teller, and a host of United States Congressmen and Senators. Projects include a Raoul Wallenberg Memorial in Hungary and the restoration and preservation of historic Hungarian Synagogues and Jewish monuments.

Donors have a deep concern for the perpetuation of Jewish memory of the Holocaust, and the history of Jewish communities of Europe. Average donation is $28.00.
